Whereas, Andrew Carnegie had agreed to sell to James Gayley an interest in The Carnegie Steel Company, Limited, equal to one-third (⅓) of one per cent (1%) of the capital thereof, for the price or consideration of Two hundred and fifty-two thousand and thirty-three and thirty-three one hundredth dollars ($252,033.33): and

Whereas, the said interest by subsequent re-organization became entitled to four hundred and forty two (442) shares of the par value of Four hundred and forty two thousand dollars ($442,000.00) of the Capital Stock of The Carnegie Company, and also to Bonds of said Company of the par value of Four hundred and fifty-one thousand dollars ($451,000.00): and

Whereas, by subsequent adjustments the said price to be paid by the said James Gayley to the said Andrew Carnegie has been fixed and settled between the parties, as of April 1st, 1900, at the sum of Two hundred thousand six hundred and fifty-one and sixteen one hundredth dollars ($200,651.16), which sum, with interest at the rate of five per centum per annum, payable semi-annually, from April 1st. 1900, is due and owing to the said Andrew Carnegie.

Now this Agreement, made this 25th day of April A.D. 1900, between the said Andrew Carnegie as the first party, and James Gayley as the second party, Witnesseth:

That the second party hereby deposits with first party the said four hundred and forty-two (442) shares of the Capital Stock of The Carnegie Company, and Bonds of the said Company of the par value of Four hundred and fifty-one thousand dollars ($451,000.00) as collateral security for the payment of the said sum of Two hundred thousand and six hundred and fifty-one and sixteen one hundredth dollars ($200,651.16), with interest from April 1st. 1900, at the said rate of five per centum per annum.

The second party shall collect all dividends upon said Stock and forthwith pay the same over to the first party. The first party shall collect all interest upon said Bonds, and the principal of any of said Bonds that may be paid through the sinking fund provided therefor, and shall apply the same, as well as the dividends received by him, first, to the payment of the accrued interest upon, and next to the payment of the principal of, said indebtedness, until the said debt and interest shall be fully paid.

The second party, or his legal representatives, shall not in any way be personally liable for the payment of said debt, or interest thereon, it being the intention of the parties hereto that the said debt and interest shall be solely payable out of the dividends upon said shares of stock, the interest upon said bonds and the principal of any of said bonds paid through the sinking fund, and, in consideration of the waiver by the first party of personal liability of the second party for said debt and interest, the second party covenants and agrees that the said indebtedness shall be paid only in the manner specified, and that neither he nor his legal representatives will pay or attempt to pay the said indebtedness, so as to redeem and release the said collateral. This agreement shall bind and enure to the benefit of the legal representatives of the respective parties hereto: As the Bonds hereby agreed to be deposited are not yet ready for delivery, Certificates of the Re-Organization Committee, shall presently be deposited with the first party, afterwards temporary Certificates, counter-signed by the Trustee of the Deed of Trust securing said Bonds, and finally the Bonds themselves, shall be de-posited with the first party, who may procure the said temporary Certificates and Bonds through his holding of the Committee's Certificates.

In Witness Whereof, the parties have hereunto set their hands and seals at Pittsburg, Pennsylvania, this 25th Day of April A.D. 1900.

Carnegie Co. Bonds "A"

For donation of bonds for pension fund, &c. as per letter herewith:

240 $5000000 00

New York. 12th March 1901

President and Managers,

Carnegie Company

Gentlemen:

Mr Franks, my cashier, will hand over to you upon your acceptance of the trust, $5,000,000 of the Carnegie Company Bonds in trust for the following purposes:

The income of $1,000,000 to be spent in maintaining the Libraries built by me at Braddock, Homestead and Duquesne Works. I have been giving the interest of $250,000 to each of these Libraries hitherto: this will give a revenue of $50,000 hereafter for the three. Braddock Library is doing a great deal of work for the neighbourhood and requires more than Homestead. Homestead on the other hand will probably require more for a time than Duquesne, but I leave it to you to distribute the funds from time to time according to the work done or needed. Duquesne's portion can be held until Library is opend, and then applied to meet extras in cost, if any.

The income of the other $4,000,000 is to be applied:- 1st. To provide for employees of the Carnegie Company in all its works, mines, railways, shops, &c, injured in its service, and for those dependent upon such employees as are killed.

To provide small pensions or aids to such employees as, after long and credetable service, through exceptional circumstances need such help in their old age and who make a good use of it.

Should these uses not require all of the revenue and a surplus of $200,000 be left after ten years operation, then for all over this, workmen in mills other than Carnegie Co. in Allegheny County shall become eligible for participation in the fund, the mills nearest the works of the Carnegie Co. being first embraced.

This fund is not intended to be used as a substitute for what the Company has been in the habit of doing in such cases, far from it, it is intended to go still further and give to the injured or their families, or to employees who are needy in old age through no fault of their own, some provision against want as long as needed, or until young children can become self supporting.

Your President and myself have been conferring for some time past as to the possibility of introducing a pension and beneficial system to which employees contribute, resembling that so admirably established by the Penna. and B. & O. Railroads. We find it a difficult problem to adjust it to a manufacturing concern, but should it be solved hereafter the Trustees have authority to make this fund the foundation of such a system.

Each Superintendent will report to the President such cases in his department as he thinks worthy of aid from the fund, and the President will in turn report to the Directors with his recommendation for action. A report to be made at the end of each year giving an account of the fund and of its distribution, and published in two papers in Pittsburg, and copies posted freely at the several works that every employee may know what is being done. Publicity in this manner will I am sure have a beneficial effect.

I make this first use of my surplus wealth upon retiring from business as an acknowledgment of the deep debt which I owe to the workmen who have contributed so greatly to my success. I hope the cordial relations which exist between employers and employed throughout all the Carnegie Company works may never be disturbed, both Employers and employed remembering what I said in my last speech to the men at Homestead: Labor, Capital and Business Ability are the three legs of a three-legged stool, neither is first, neither is second, neither is third, there is no precedence, all being equally necessary. He who would sow discord among the three is an enemy of all.

I know I have done my duty in retiring from business when an opportunity presented itself, and yet as I write my heart is full; I have enjoyed so much my connection with workmen, foremen, clerks, superintendents, partners and all other classes, that it is a great wrench indeed to say farewell. Happily there is no real farewell in one sence because although no longer an employer I am still and always must be a friend, deeply interested in the happiness of all whom it has been my good fortune to know and work in sympathy with for so many happy years.

Always truly yours
(Signed) Andrew Carnegie

Pittsburg, Pa.

		"copy of letter sent with bond is as follows
		"Nov 9th 1906
		"M. L. Leard, Rector of the Academy of Paris, Sorbonne, Paris, France.
		"Dear Sir:
		I have the honor to transmit herewith Fifty Thousand Dollars in five per cent Gold Bonds for the founding of Curie Scholarships, as arranged in correspondence with Prof. Paul Appell, Dean of the Faculty of Science of the University of Paris, whose draft rules for the distribution of Scholarships are entirely agreeable; but might I venture to suggest that so long as Madam Curie is alive and capable of conference her wishes be respected. continued on Page 255	5000000

With reference to the name, I could not endure my name being coupled with the two immortals, the Curies. Their name should stand alone. I suggest therefor that instead of the Carnegie-Curie Foundation, the name should simply be the Curies Foundation, created by Andrew Carnegie. Making it plural will include Madame, which I am anxious should be done."

"I believe that Messrs. P. Morgan, Hartjes & Co. will gladly collect the coupons for you without charge, as is usually done by public-spirited bankers in similar cases, as I know.

"Pray give my special and heartfelt greetings to Madame Curie, of whom I have such pleasing recollection."

I wish she could manage in some way to come with a friend to the opening of our Institute at Pittsburg, April 11th. Several distinguished Frenchmen are to attend, including the Director of the Louvre and the Director of the Trocadero. All expenses are paid. Madame Curie could choose her own escort, however, all expenses of herself and escort being paid from the time they leave their doorsteps until their return. I shall have an invitation sent to her, if it has not already been done.

Very truly yours
(Signed) Andrew Carnegie" 50000 00

COPY OF LETTER.

Pittsburg, January 2, 1898.

Gentlemen:

Simultaneously with the annual appropriation of the City for the support of the Public Library, there will be deposited to the credit of your Treasurer from my estate in perpetuity each year, the sum of $50,000.00.

This sum is to be used for the purposes of the Art Galleries and Museum, in the manner which to you may seem best calculated to render these institutions most useful for the general public.

There is only one provision which I beg you to regard, viz: That there be purchased each year, two or more pictures by American artists, exhibited in that year, preferably in the Carnegie Art Gallery. These pictures to be chosen by a two-thirds majority vote of the Trustees, and hung upon the walls of the Art Gallery, permanently, year after year, adjoining each other; the year of purchase being conspicuously marked upon them. The object being, to secure a chronological display of American art from this time forth, as shown by these purchases.

Should the Trustees fail to find satisfactory pictures from among those exhibited in any year in the Carnegie Gallery, they are authorized to select from other galleries.

Should extensions of the buildings be found necessary at any future time, and the Trustees not be enabled by any other means to secure necessary funds for such extensions, they are authorized to reduce their expenditures from the fund for a series of years, in order to pay for these.
